NO. 27.

GEORGE ROGERS AND TOM HARROD

Bound Over in Four Cases for Selling Whiskey.

FENNEL CAPTURES STOCK.

Other Men Accused—Three Acquitted—One Waived Examination.

Proceedings against the blind tiger men which were commenced in County Judge Mason's court last Thursday continued all day Friday. The prisoners were represented by attorney Evans Hailie, and the State by Attorney B. A. Thrasier, assisted by Attorney Chris Matheson.

The development showed conclusively that the local option law was being flagrantly violated at Wade, and to the casual observer it was noticeable—as in the case on such occasions—that some of those who were called to the witness stand were unwilling witnesses.

The evidence showed, beyond the peradventure of doubt, that the building formerly occupied by George Rogers as a saloon at Wade, has been used as a blind tiger since the county went dry, and that a hole had been made in the wall so that whiskey and beer could be delivered through it to the buyer without the seller being seen. Several witnesses swore that they had applied to George Rogers and Tom Harrod for whiskey, that these men went in the house, closed the door, and then the amount and brand of liquor ordered would come through the "hole in the wall," that the hand that shoved out the bottle would take in the money put in the hole, etc. One witness swore positively who he bought the whiskey from, but most of the witnesses said they didn't know who sold it, though did know who went in the house for it. From the evidence in the case it would seem that the place is one of the devil's own arrangements.

Of the men brought in from out there through Sheriff Fennell's commendable efforts and well arranged plans, George Rogers and Tom Harrod were bound over in two cases each in the sum of $300 each, and in two other cases each they were bound over on their own recognizance. F. C. Reinhardt, Sam Gay and Charlie Lewis were discharged for want of sufficient evidence against them, and John Craig waved examination and was bound over in the sum of $300 to await the action of the grand jury.

FENNEL BRINGS IN THE LIQUOR.

While the commitment trial of these cases was going on Sheriff Fennell raided the Rogers tiger at Wade and brought the contents—consisting of several wagon loads of whiskeys, beers, etc.—to Gainesville, where it will remain till the court passes upon the case and a disposition of the "wet" goods is ordered.

We understand Mr. Rogers is very much displeased at Sheriff Fennell's action in raiding the tiger and capturing the contents thereof, but this is but natural. It is also but natural for every law-abiding citizen in the county to commend the Sheriff for his action in the matter, and this every law-abiding citizen is doing.

William Thomas came in yesterday from Bell—he having heard that Sheriff Fennell had ordered a deputy to arrest him on a charge of selling liquor out there—and gave bond to appear here on Wednesday, Aug. 5, to have a commitment trial.

His headquarters is Tallahassee, near where he was "brought up," and where we understand he is very popular.

Mr. Snipes' Gainesville friends will be pleased to hear of his well deserved promotion.

High Springs News.

From the Hornet, July 24.
W. D. Blitch departed Monday for Florida.

The A. C. L. employees here were made happy Monday over the receipt of their monthly salaries.

A. E. Summers, accompanied by his handsome spouse, returned to the city Friday from a business and pleasure trip to the Eastern States.

Chas. Glass, after a visit to his sick mother in this city, returned to his post of duty in Port Royal, S. C., yesterday. Mrs. Glass' condition remains preceptibly unchanged.

Sheriff L. W. Fennell, was a distinguished guest to the city Monday. Sheriff Fennell came for Wm. Harris, a negro who is charged with selling liquor in a dry county.

Mrs. A. G. Anderson went to Worthington Springs last Sunday where she will spend several days. Mrs. Anderson has been in poor health for quite a while and her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Don't hold the Hornet responsible for the error made last week in regard to Col. Chris Matheson filling an engagement with the Presbyterian denomination last Sunday, but he will occupy the pulpit at that church next Sunday the 26th, he having accepted a call to this field. We congratulate our Presbyterian friends in securing the services of this brilliant young man permanently. Go hear him.

F. B. Atwater has sold his grist mill and ginny to Summers & Anderson. This is a good paying piece of property, and no doubt the new possessors of the same will make a good "hit" soon as the cotton season opens. Mr. Atwater, so it is generally understood, will remove out on his farm, and live a life of isolation and retirement, where the mill is no more heard, and where the mocking birds perpetually chirp the songs of cheer.

To Endorse Sheriff Fennell

The Anti-Blind Tiger Association which was organized in Gainesville soon after the county went dry in June, will hold a meeting at the court house this morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of passing resolutions endorsing Sheriff Fennell for the many manner in which he is acting toward the blind tigers now trying to run rough shod over the people of Alachua county.

The Sheriff brought in this week not only a few of the animals, but a lot of their stock in trade as well, and every good citizen should show his appreciation of the Sheriff's good work.

In Judge Mason's Court.

Almost the entire day yesterday was devoted to the trial of a tedious trespass case in Judge Mason's court. The defendants in the case are three women, about as black as the blackest, from the Jonesville section. The case was not finished yesterday and will be taken up again this morning at 9 o'clock.

Attorneys R. E. Davis and J. A. Carls represent defendants, and Attorneys Pivers and Thrasier represented the plaintiff, who is a white man named Williams.

Gainesville Oranges.

Capt. J. M. Dell has some very fine oranges, at his place in East Gainesville. The trees are so heavily fruited that they have to be supported by props, and the fruit is large and well matured.

Saturday Capt. Dell exhibited on the streets a branch that had broken from one of his trees, and on this branch there were fifteen large fine oranges. Capt. Dell has a small grove in East Gainesville of which he is proud, and which will pay him some money this year.

Fought the Officers.

The colored prisoner—Louis Pauling—who was examined for lunacy at the county jail last Saturday, and pronounced a fit subject for the asylum, was taken to Chattahoochee yesterday, by a guard who came for him.

It is said that the unfortunate man fought the officers like a tiger. There is hardly a doubt about his being a fit subject for the institution to which he has been taken.

Time of Meeting Postponed.

A convention of school officers will be held in the Gainesville High School building on Saturday, August 15, 1903.

Every supervisor, trustee and all other persons interested in education, are earnestly requested to be present. The meeting was postponed on account of the unavoidable absence of Superintendent Holloway, who is in Tallahassee serving on the High School Commission.

MONTICELLO OUT FOR PROHIBITION

An Anti-Saloon Wave Has Struck Jefferson County.

ONE SALOON MAN TO RETIRE

Temperance People Determined to Vote Out the Saloons—Much Enthusiasm.

Monticello, July 23.—The most enthusiastic temperance meeting ever held in Monticello took place in Perkins' Opera house yesterday afternoon. The opera house was well filled with the members of the Jefferson County temperance organization and their friends. Rev. J. C. Horton, rector of Christ Church, opened the meeting with prayer. Judge T. M. Puleston made an eloquent address. The president, Dr. Geo. B. Glover, in a clear and firm voice, read a letter from Thomas J. Taylor, the most influential saloon-keeper here, stating that in view of the strong sentiment against his business, and a desire to engage in the general merchandise business, he would withdraw all opposition to the movement now in the county and align himself with the friends of temperance, quit the business, and vote the "dry ticket." At the conclusion of the reading of this letter, the large audience went wild, hats were thrown up, and the most intense enthusiasm manifested. After a momentary pause, the entire audience arose and "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," in melodious tone, rang out on the soft twilight of that summer's day. This establishing beyond a doubt that Monticello will go dry. A letter from Hon. J. W. Edwards of Floyd, bidding Goodbye to the cause, was read and received with great applause.—Times-Union.

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send your fifty cent bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.

When in Florida the winter of 1897 and 98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.

Yours truly,
